

Hello from Bo and Sarah! We are incredibly grateful for your courageous decision and for taking the time to learn about us. We've been praying for a child and are grateful for the opportunity to adopt.

Name: Bo

Occupation: Business Administrator IT

Favorite Activities: board games and outdoor activities

Favorite Food: Chinese

Fun Fact: We have over 100 board games

Name: Sarah

Occupation: Second Grade Teacher

Favorite Activities: board games or being with friends

Favorite Food: Mexican

Fun Fact: I have never broken a bone

Children: We have no biological or adopted children.

Religion: We attend a non-denominational church and believe in Jesus Christ.

Home Description: We are blessed to live in a cozy home that has four bedrooms, a giant living room, and a large yard with a few trees for climbing. We are less than a mile away from a park and an elementary school.

Pets: We have one dog, Gunner who is 1 year old mixed breed. He loves to be around people. Gunner enjoys walks, car rides, and licks. He loves anything he can chew on and morning snuggles!

What we most look forward to as parents: We look forward to watching our child grow and accomplish the small milestones as well as the big ones. We are excited about sharing our love of board games and adventures with our child. We hope to make many lasting memories with them.

Our thoughts on adoption: We have always known that adoption was in our future and would love to have open communication with the birth family. We are thankful for a God who has a beautiful plan for us. We are excited to see how He grows our family.
