Home Description: We live in a three-bedroom, two-and-a-half bath townhouse with a fully fenced back yard. Our home is in one of Montana's larger cities, on a street that is filled with the giggles and wheeled escapades of young children.

Pets: Freddo, the sweetest four-year-old yellow Labrador to ever flunk out of guide dog training.

What we most look forward to as parents: We have so much fun exploring the world together through travel, outdoor adventures, books and food—we can't wait to share those experiences with a child! We hope to raise our son or daughter to know the deep love of the Lord, the two of us and his or her birth family.

Our thoughts on adoption: We believe that children are a gift from God, no matter how they enter a family. After trying unsuccessfully to conceive a child, our hearts have turned toward adoption, which already plays a big part in our story. Should you decide we are the right fit for your child, we promise to respect your preferences for ongoing contact with our family, and look forward to developing a long-term relationship if that is your choice.
